

Madeline Dauksas Joins Slayton Search Partners as Vice President & Principal

Slayton Search Partners, a globally respected leader in retained executive search, is excited to announce that Madeline Dauksas has joined the company as Vice President and Principal. She will bring her expertise in the Consumer practice to drive value for top-performing organizations in the space.

“I’m excited to bring my career to a high-touch and well-respected company,” comments Madeline. “It’s an honor to join a leading search firm that is focused not only on an exceptional level of service to its clients but also on the experience of its employees. They have welcomed me in, and it’s clear how much they care.”

As a Chicago native, Madeline has built her career in executive search at a handful of prominent international search firms, most recently at Heidrick & Struggles. She has completed over 100 assignments at the C-suite level and is uniquely positioned to leverage her skills in the search process.

“We anticipate great things from Madeline,” shares Richard Slayton, Manager Partner & CEO of Slayton Search Partners. “Her impressive background in executive search makes her a great fit for our company. I’m excited to see her put her capabilities to use in building client relationships and growing our Consumer practice.”
